Rebuilding Together Arlington/Fairfax/Falls Church provides home repair services at no cost to low-income homeowners. Priority is given to seniors, persons with disabilities, veterans and families with children. The majority of the work performed is done by community members who volunteer their time.

Repairs include but are not limited to: building wheelchair ramps; installing grab bars, raised toilets and railings; addressing minor plumbing and electrical repairs; fixing drywall and doors; painting and other handyman type repairs.

Office is available by bus and has accessible entrance.
