Fort Gregg-Adams offers a Transition Assistance program, separation counseling for military families, job assistance for retirees, and more. Programs can provide you with important information about local ACAP services and procedures. The program also identifies employment opportunities in the Central Virginia Region including the Richmond and Petersburg area. Resume & Job Search is also provided. The mission is to provide a smooth transition for Fort Lee soldiers who are separating from the Army, ensure the final disposition of records, and counsel soldiers on benefits.
