

Published on VeteransNavigator (<https://veteransnavigator.org>)

Help for Cancer Patients, Survivors, and Caregivers

The American Cancer Society (ACS) offers support in your community and online to help you during and after cancer treatment.

Cancer Resources

The Help for Patients, Survivors, and Caregivers fact sheet provides information on ACS cancer resources including:

- 24/7 cancer helpline
- Educational materials about cancer
- Places to stay during treatment
- Rides to treatment
- Connecting cancer survivors
- Bready cancer support
- Hair-loss and mastectomy products
- American Cancer Society books
- Survivorship guidelines and additional resources
- Caregiver support resources
- Clinical trials
- Website resources on cancer.org - tools, videos, live chat, support, and more

► Visit cancer.org or call us at 1-800-227-2345 for more information.

Article Source

American Cancer Society

Source URL

<https://www.cancer.org>

Last Reviewed

Thursday, January 12, 2023